DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY NO 04-2

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE COINS

1. As authorized by AMC Delegation of Authority 2-99, dated 19 April 1999, subject: Delegation of Authority to Purchase Commanders' Coins, I hereby delegate authority for the establishment of coins as a supplemental recognition device for the following positions:

- a. All AFSC/JMC Commanders and Deputy Commanders at the rank of LTC and above;
- b. All AFSC/JMC Civilian Heads of Separate Reporting Activities at the GS-15 level;
- c. Chief of Staff, HQ, AFSC;
- d. Deputy to the Commander, HQ, AFSC (SES position);
- e. Chief Counsel, HQ, AFSC (SES position).

2. Individuals assigned to positions for which coins have been established may purchase coins with appropriated funds, as long as the following conditions are met:

- a. Authorized individuals shall distribute coins for exceptional performance or unique achievement in accordance with military and civilian incentive awards regulations. Authorized individuals may also present coins to members of the military for excellence in accomplishments and competitions, which clearly contribute to the effectiveness, or efficiency of military units.
- b. Authorized individuals shall establish a recognition program listing the general criteria for receipt of coins.
- c. Authorized individuals shall limit their purchases in accordance with funding rules – normally the number of coins they reasonably expect to distribute in a given fiscal year.
- d. Authorized individuals shall order coins with an appropriate unit crest or designation. Authorized individuals shall not order coins with their personal name.

3. The authority hereby delegated is issued without power of redelegation.
4. Delegation of Authority 99-13, dated 26 May 1999, is hereby superseded without prejudice to any actions taken thereunder.
